From 1844 to 2021 (177 Years)

December 24th

We will continue sending out this combination of the newsletter and bulletin to keep you up to date on announcements, prayers, needs and scheduled activities for those that are uncomfortable to attend service yet.

Included will be the usual newsletter information along with prayers, scripture and a sermon.

We hope that you can utilize this format to keep up to date while being away from actual services, meetings, activities and watching the online sermon.

Lighting of the Advent Candle - Christ

The Blairs

Reader One: The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who lived in a land of deep darkness — on them light has shined. You have multiplied the nation, you have increased its joy; they rejoice before you as with joy at the harvest ...

For a child has been born for us, a son given to us; authority rests upon his shoulders; and he is named Wonderful Counsellor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

His authority shall grow continually, and there shall be endless peace for the throne of David and his kingdom. He will establish and uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time onwards and for evermore. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will do this. (portions of Isaiah 9:2-7)

Reader Two: This night is a night to remember. A night when home broke in on us. A night when we found that we were not forgotten or alone or abandoned. This night is the night when here and there became one, when past and future combined in a breathless present. This is a night when we are home, in ourselves, in this family, in the God who loved us enough to walk beside us.

We gather in the night to proclaim the light. We shrug off despair and embrace hope. We set aside conflict and choose peace. We push away despair by claiming joy. We overcome hate by rising into love. Because this night we know, even in the shadows of our doubts, we know that we are loved. That’s what it means to be home.

Reader One: We light these candles, hoping to become the light, hoping to radiate light by how we live. We light these candles to create a space called home in this place, in our place. We light these candles to declare that unto us a Savior is born, who is Christ the Lord. Welcomed home by angels singing and shepherds kneeling. Welcomed home by those like us who have worshiped for thousands of years. Welcomed home again tonight, right here, right now, in us. It’s time to be home.

Light the Christ Candle and all candles of the wreath.

“Good Christian Friends, Rejoice”

Hymn 198

Welcome

Evening Prayer

God, our Heavenly Father, as we gather again this evening to celebrate the coming of Your son into our world. May we begin to see this world through Your eyes, may we learn to grieve over that which grieves You, and rejoice over that which gladdens Your heart. As you chose the lowly and the poor, to first receive the news of Your son’s birth, so may we be among those who worship You in meekness of heart. And as we sing the songs and tell the stories of that baby born so long ago who was Emanuel - God with us - remind us again that His coming was to seek and to save the lost. So may we also live our lives and speak of our faith in ways that will point those whom You love - home to Jesus. And in this way, may the spirit of Christmas live in our hearts all year long so that through our joyous gifts of time, talent, and resources may continue to spread abroad the good news -- that Christ was born to save. Amen.

*Invitation to Holy Communion		Rev. John Salley

Friends, this is the joyful feast of the people of God.

They will come from east and west and from north and south to sit at table in the kingdom of God.

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

You formed us in your image and breathed into us the breath of life. When we turned away, and our love failed, your love remained steadfast.

You delivered us from captivity, made covenant to be our sovereign God, and spoke to us through your prophets, who looked for that day when justice shall roll down like waters and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream, when nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. And so, with your people on earth and all the company of heaven, we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest!

Holy are you, and blessed is your Son Jesus Christ, whom you sent in the fullness of time to be a light to the nations. He came among us as a servant, to be Emmanuel, your presence with us. He humbled himself in obedience to your will and freely accepted death on a cross. By the baptism of his suffering, death, and resurrection you gave birth to your church, delivered us from slavery to sin and death, and made with us a new covenant by water and the Spirit.

And so, in remembrance of these your mighty acts in Jesus Christ, we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving as a holy and living sacrifice, in union with Christ's offering for us, as we proclaim the mystery of our faith.

Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again.

(let us pray) Heavenly Father, pour out your Holy Spirit on us, gathered here, and on these gifts of bread and wine. Make them be for us the body and blood of Christ, that we may be for the world the body of Christ, redeemed by his blood. By your Spirit make us one with Christ, one with each other, and one in ministry to all the world, until Christ comes in final victory and we feast at his heavenly banquet. Through your Son Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in your holy church all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and forever. Amen.

(after everyone has received communion)

The Grace of the Lord, Jesus Christ, be with you all. Let us Pray. (unison)

O Lord, whose presence overfills the vastness of the universe yet whose Spirit can live in each of our hearts, we know there is no limit on the ways you can reveal yourself to us or come to us. We live in hope for the promise of your ultimate return in Glory, and yet we pray that we will also keep alert for the many ways you come to us daily.
MARANATHA! ("Come Lord, Jesus") Amen

With a heartfelt thank you to the congregation from Rev. John Salley, Rev. Bill Rutledge and Lana for all of the gifts that were showered on us this Christmas.
We are truly blessed to have such a caring and loving church family.

Biblical Book Notes

We are coming to the day when we celebrate the birth of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. On this topic and so many others, the church library has good reads to offer! The following books will be available at the back of the Sanctuary for checkout, or browse the library collection anytime. If you cannot make it in person, contact Lynne Palmer, your church librarian, who can arrange for home delivery.

- Rick Warren, The Purpose of Christmas. In this brief and readable gem, Warren reminds us that this is a time for celebration, salvation and reconciliation.
- Fulton Oursler, The Greatest Story Ever Told. Oursler invents a fictionalized narrative to flesh out New Testament events with imaginative dialogues. In this book Jesus emerges as "the compassionate, forceful Son of God, sent into the world to bring new life and hope..."
- J. Vernon McGee, Ruth and Esther, Women of Faith. This book highlights the relationship of the Book of Ruth to redemption.

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH HIS CREATION

How does God make Himself known unto us through His creation? This will be the subject of a class that Reverend Parker will be teaching, beginning on Sunday, January 9th at 9:00 am. The class will meet in the fellowship hall. During this class we will explore how God has revealed Himself through His creation in the pages of the Bible and down through the centuries of Christian history. We will also explore how God can reveal Himself to us when we spend time outdoors. Please sign up by contacting Rev. Parker or calling the church office.
